THE LA SALLE STORY

La Salle College, now in its 121st year of service to higher education and the Philadelphia community, was founded March 20, 1863 by the Brothers of the Christian Schools and derives its name from the founder of the Christian Brothers, St. John Baptist de La Salle.

Today, almost 7,300 day and evening division students attend classes on La Salle's 58 acre campus located at 20th and Olney adjacent to the historic East Germantown section of the city.

Olney Hall, a multi-purpose modern facility, contains 39 classrooms, 15 seminar and study rooms, and 107 faculty offices as well as such special purpose areas as a planetarium, an amphitheater, language laboratories, and audio visual rooms. It houses the liberal arts area departments of English, education, history, languages, political science and sociology.

Hayman Hall, the college's $4 million physical recreation center which opened in 1972, contains the Joseph Kirk Memorial Natatorium with separate swimming and diving facilities, and underwater observation deck, and seats for 1,700 spectators. Three regulation size basketball courts, a one-twelfth mile indoor suspended track, and areas for fencing, wrestling, squash, handball, gymnastics and general exercise are other features of the complex.

Eleven residence halls and two garden-type apartment complexes accommodate more than 1,000 out-of-town students. A $2 million, three-story College Union Building includes a Little Theater as well as dining halls, assembly rooms, ballroom, and other student facilities. An annex to this building has recently been added.

The $2.5 million Holroyd Science Center houses lecture rooms and laboratories for study and research in biology, chemistry, geology, physics and psychology. The air-conditioned, 200,000 volume David Leo Lawrence Memorial Library and six other academic buildings are located on the main campus.

The Army ROTC program is available to freshman, who may apply for ROTC scholarships for advanced studies. A total of 90 men and women are enrolled in the program.

La Salle's day and evening divisions offer degree programs in Arts and Sciences and Business Administration. An MBA program began in 1976. Graduate programs are also offered in theology, education, and bilingual /bicultural studies (Spanish). La Salle initiated Philadelphia's first Weekend College in September, 1975, enabling men and women to take courses exclusively on Saturdays and Sundays. La Salle also offers Evening Division courses off-campus in Northeast Philadelphia, Bucks County and Center City. The 350 member faculty is composed of Christian Brothers, priests and lay professors. The college has been coeducational in the evening division since February, 1967 and in its day school since September, 1970.

Students at La Salle come from some 200 public and private schools in 30 states, most of them located in the northeastern part of the United States. Twenty countries are also represented in the student body. More than 75 percent of them plan graduate work and about 1,000 degrees are conferred annually on day and evening division seniors. La Salle's alumni totals more than 26,000 with more than 80 percent of them still living and working in the tri-state area of Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Delaware.

BIOGRAPHY

BROTHER F. PATRICK ELLIS, F.S.C., Ph.D.
PRESIDENT of LA SALLE COLLEGE

Brother F. Patrick Ellis, F.S.C., Ph.D., became La Salle College's 26th president on January 1, 1977 after having served as director of development and vice president of the corporation of the college since June, 1969. Born in Baltimore in 1928, he succeeded Brother Daniel Burke, F.S.C., Ph.D., who served as the president of the college for the previous seven and one-half years.

Brother Ellis, a member of the Brothers of the Christian Schools since 1946, joined the La Salle staff in 1960 as an assistant professor of English. He has been at the college since then except for a term as principal of La Salle High School, in Miami, FL, from 1962 to 1964.

Brother Ellis returned to La Salle in 1964 and served as director of the college's Honors Program until 1969 when he was named director of development and vice president of the Corporation. Brother Ellis was awarded a Lindback Foundation Award for distinguished teaching in 1965 and currently holds the academic rank of professor of English.

Brother Ellis served at Philadelphia's West Catholic High School for boys from 1951 to 1958 and again from 1959 to 1960 in various capacities including chairman of the English Department and guidance director.

The author of numerous articles in educational publications, Brother also conducted a "How to Read Great Books" series for the "University of the Air" on Philadelphia's WFIL-TV in 1960 and 1965. He is a member of Phi Beta Kappa and was president of the Phi Beta Kappa Association of Philadelphia for two terms.

Brother Ellis, a 1946 graduate of Baltimore's Calvert Hall College High School, received an A.B. degree in English from the Catholic University of America, Washington, D.C., in 1951. He earned a master's degree and doctorate in English from the University of Pennsylvania.

A member of the Board of Trustees of Manhattan College, NY; of St. Mary's College, Winona, Minnesota, and St. John's College High School, Washington. Brother Ellis is the son of Mrs. Harry J. Ellis who lives in Baltimore.

He is chairman of the Campus Boulevard Consortium, a cooperative organization of institutions on Olney Ave, and is president of the James A. Finnegan Foundation.

He is past co-chairman of the Greater Philadelphia Partnership and on the executive committee of the Pennsylvania Association of Colleges and Universities, and on the boards of the American Council on Education; the Greater Philadelphia First Corporation; the Afro-American Historical Museum, the Friends of Independence Hall, and the Community Leadership Seminar. He has been named to a record three-year term on the Philadelphia Diocesan Council of Managers.

La Salle College is a Catholic church-related coeducational college founded in 1863 with more than 7,000 men and women in its day, evening, weekend divisions, and graduate schools. It is located at 20th St. and Olney Ave. at the edge of the historic Germantown section of Philadelphia.

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

WILLIAM D. BRADSHAW

William D. Bradshaw, a 1969 graduate of La Salle College, was named Director of Athletics and Recreation in December of 1977.

Under Bradshaw's direction, the La Salle athletic program has grown to 22 intercollegiate sports with comprehensive success. Last year, Explorer athletic teams captured seven league championships, the most ever won by La Salle teams. Included in those championships were the first soccer title ever and the fourth consecutive swimming championship. Team records for victories in a season have been attained by eight La Salle teams during Bradshaw's tenure, while the field hockey team became the first college team in the city of Philadelphia to win a women's national championship, accomplishing that feat in 1980.

While athletic teams have made great strides under Bradshaw's direction, academics have not been ignored. Over 90 percent of Explorer athletes have earned their degrees from the college while generally maintaining a higher grade point average than the overall student population.

The 36-year-old Bradshaw is an active member in the Eastern College Athletic Conference as well as the Philadelphia Big 5. He is a member of the Eastern College Basketball Association Executive Committee and sits on the ECAC Television Committee. This past year Bradshaw orchestrated La Salle's move from the East Coast Conference to the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference, a new and rapidly growing conference consisting of colleges in the major media centers on the east coast.

During his collegiate days at La Salle, Bradshaw was one of the top baseball players to ever wear the Blue and Gold. A second baseman who captained the 1969 team, Bradshaw batted a lofty .415 in his senior year, an average which took him to professional baseball in the Washington Senators/Texas Rangers organization. He had a .315 batting average as a pro before a broken ankle ended his career.

Before returning to his alma mater as AD, Bradshaw earned a master's degree in guidance and counseling from Niagara University. He was also coach of the Purple Eagle baseball team for two seasons and guided the 1974 team to a school record 29 wins.

Bradshaw resides in Wyndmoor, PA with his wife Elaine and daughter Lesley.

ASSOCIATE ATHLETIC DIRECTOR

JOSEPH F. O'DONNELL

Joseph F. O'Donnell, a 1965 graduate of La Salle College, was named associate athletic director at his alma mater in 1978. Originally appointed assistant athletic director in 1972, he continues to serve as coordinator of Hayman Hall, the college's $4 million physical education center.

After receiving his bachelor's degree in economics from La Salle, O'Donnell taught social studies at Father Judge High School until 1970. At Father Judge, his high school alma mater, O'Donnell coached the school's soccer squad and was credited with developing 28 All-Catholic players, four of whom received All-Scholastic honors, and one All-America status.

In 1970, O'Donnell served as a recreational leader for the city of Philadelphia at the Jandel Center. He was a member of the Department of Recreation Soccer Committee and also assisted Bill

Wilkinson with the 1970 Explorer soccer team which posted the first winning season in the college's history.

O'Donnell and his wife Marie, who is the head coach of La Salle's cheerleading team, reside in Jenkintown, PA.

HEAD COACH

DAVE "LEFTY" ERVIN

Dave "Lefty" Ervin enters his fifth season at the helm of the La Salle College basketball team after recording his fourth consecutive winning season and second trip to the NCAA Tournament.

Although Ervin's squad last season was hit with injuries to key personnel, he was able to direct the team to an 18-14 record which included the championship of the East Coast Conference. That win put the Explorers in the NCAA Tournament and Ervin, in only his second tournament appearance, guided La Salle to its first post-season victory since 1955 when his team defeated Boston University in the preliminary round of the tournament.

Ervin's career record stands at a very fine 70-49, a mark which puts him fifth on La Salle's all-time coaching victory list. Ervin directed La Salle to its first win ever against Notre Dame in his rookie season and has generated other outstanding victories which gained respect for him in the coaching field.

The 38-year-old Ervin is the fifteenth head coach in the history of intercollegiate basketball at La Salle. He was appointed on August 30, 1979, succeeding Paul Westhead who went on to coach the Los Angeles Lakers and Chicago Bulls of the National Basketball Association.

A 1969 graduate of La Salle, Ervin served as an assistant coach at his alma mater under Tom Gola (1969-70) and Westhead (1971-77). During his tenure as an assistant, the Explorers posted a 146-93 record and reached the 20-win plateau three times, including the 1969 team which finished with a 23-1 record.

After the 1977 season, Ervin left La Salle College and accepted the head coaching position at La Salle High School, where he also taught psychology. In only two seasons, he directed a team which consisted of three starting sophomores to a play-off appearance in the highly competitive Philadelphia Catholic League.

Ervin was a fine two-sport athlete during his collegiate days at La Salle. In his senior year he captained both the Explorer baseball and basketball teams. He set a school record for most appearances by a pitcher with 12, a record that stood for 13 years. Ervin concluded his basketball career with 756 points, including a career high 31 points against Syracuse. He was honored in his senior year with the Joseph Schmitz, Jr. Award as the senior who best exemplifies the high traditions of La Salle in loyalty, sportsmanship and courage.

Ervin, a prominent lecturer at numerous basketball camps in the off-season, resides in King of Prussia, PA with his wife Dee, son Matt and daughter Erica.

ASSISTANT COACH MARCEL ARRIBI

Marcel Arribi, the senior member of Coach Ervin's staff, begins his fourth season at La Salle.

A 1974 graduate of Gannon University, Arribi came to La Salle after serving as an assistant coach at his alma mater for two years. As an undergraduate, Arribi was a three-year performer for the Golden Knights and finished his career ranking second on the school's all-time assist list.

A native of Cliffside Park, NJ, Arribi earned his bachelor's degree in social sciences from Gannon and continued his education at Edinboro State College where he received a master's degree in educational psychology in 1977.

Arribi, 31, resides in the Jenkintown, PA area.

ASSISTANT COACH JOE MIHALICH

Joe Mihalich, a 1978 graduate of La Salle College, enters his third season as an assistant at his alma mater.

Mihalich was a four-year letterman for the Explorers, during his collegiate days, playing under Coach Paul Westhead. He co-captained the 1978 Explorer NCAA Tournament team and was voted the team's "Most Dedicated Player" that season.

Mihalich returned to La Salle in 1981 after a successful stint at DeMatha High School, a perennial power in the Washington, D.C. area. At DeMatha, Mihalich worked under Morgan Wootten, the dean of high school coaches, for three seasons. As head coach of DeMatha's JV squad, Mihalich won 39 games while dropping only five.

The 27-year-old Mihalich is currently pursuing a master's degree in athletic administration at Temple University. In addition to his coaching duties at La Salle, Mihalich is also a part-time faculty member in the college's Mathematics department.

Joe and his wife Mary reside in Philadelphia.

ASSISTANT COACH SAM RINES

Sam Rines enters his fourth season as a part-time assistant on Coach Ervin's staff.

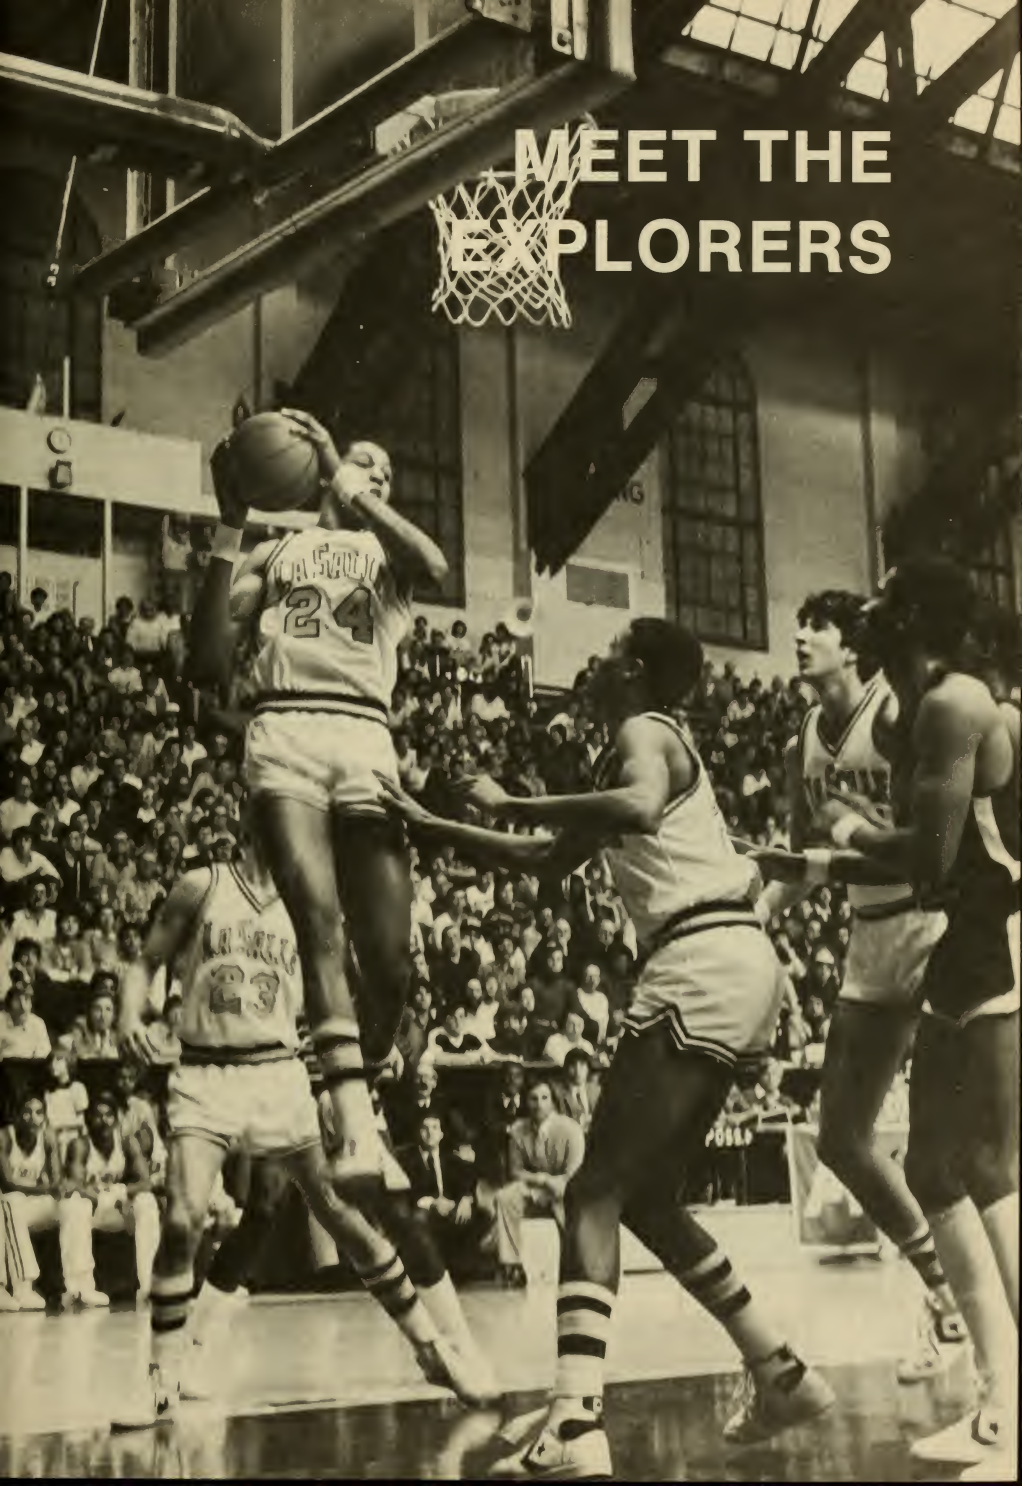

Rines had been assistant basketball coach at Abington High School in suburban Philadelphia before accepting the position at La Salle. He has also served as director and supervisor of the Abington Township Recreational Basketball Program since 1975.

A 1968 graduate of Cheyney State College, the 39-year-old Rines also holds a master's degree from Beaver College.

Sam and his wife Fannie Elizabeth reside in North Hills, PA with their three children, Donna, Charlezetta and Samuel, II.

ALBERT BUTTS

The top rebounder for La Salle the last two seasons, he has averaged over nine rebounds per game during his career . . . His 9.6 per game rebounding average last year was the highest in the East Coast Conference . . . A very physical player, he scored his career high in the final game of the regular season last year against Vermont with 24 points . . . Led La Salle in rebounds in 21 games last season and had double figure rebounds in 14 games . . . Has excellent timing to the ball and jumps well . . . A fine inside scorer, he was second on the Explorer squad in points last season while leading the team in field goal percentage with an outstanding 55.3 percent figure . . . A two year starter, he should move to the center position after playing power forward thus far . . . Was selected by Basketball Times as an honorable mention freshman All-America . . . Was selected to the All-East Coast Conference team last season and was voted MVP of the La Salle team.

COACH'S COMMENT:

"Once in a great while you see a big man that truly has an instinct in the rebounding department."

RALPH LEWIS:

Has made remarkable strides during his career at La Salle, from a freshman walk-on to the team's leader in points last year as a sophomore . . . Had the best game of his career last season against Duquesne, hitting career highs of 27 points and 17 rebounds . . . Was second on the team in scoring average (13.1) and rebounding (8.1) while leading the team in minutes played (1071) . . . Was selected for the All-Philadelphia Big 5 and All-East Coast Conference teams last season . . . Had a tremendous summer in the Sonny Hill College League, being selected MVP of the league after finishing in the top five in scoring, rebounding and field goal percentage . . . Has added weight this season which should help improve already fine rebounding statistics . . . Became the 49th player in the history of La Salle to score over 400 points in the season and this season should challenge the 1000 point barrier . . . Has averaged better than 7 rebounds per game during his career.

COACH'S COMMENT:

"Because I've watched his transformation from average to excellent, I can say there is no telling how high he will rise."

VICTOR MORAN

Begins his college basketball career this season after "redshirting" last season because of knee problems . . . Was an All-League and All-Area performer at Central Bucks West High School . . . Should see considerable action this season as a back-up forward . . . Possesses tremendous leaping ability and competed for the Explorer track team last year as a high jumper . . . Set the La Salle College high jump record last season with an effort of 7'1", a jump that also broke the East Coast Conference record . . . Uses his leaping ability in the middle, making him a fine rebounder and intimidating shot blocker . . . Can also score capably with a soft jump shot . . . A very raw talent who will improve greatly during his career.

COACH'S COMMENT:

"As his fundamentals and physical strength improve, so will his stature in the Big 5."

DALLAS PHILSON:

An excellent outside shooter who contributed tremendously to the Explorers last season, especially when the team was without Black and Greenberg... Had his best game of his career last year against Villanova, scoring 22 points, including a clutch bucket that gave La Salle the lead in the closing seconds... Was selected to the All-Tournament team at the Marshall Memorial Invitational after averaging 20 points in the two games... Was second on the team last year in steals after leading the squad as a freshman... An excellent free throw shooter, he has a career percentage of 79.0... Handles the ball well enough to play the point, but his outside shooting makes him more valuable at the second guard position... Played in all 32 Explorer games last season, including 17 as a starter.

PAUL ROACH

Sophomore 18 6'0" 175 Guard

FULL NAME: Paul Joseph Roach
DATE OF BIRTH: 2/19/64
HOMETOWN: Broomall, PA
MAJOR: Undecided
HIGH SCHOOL: Cardinal O'Hara
HIGH SCHOOL COACH: Harrison Gardler

PAUL ROACH

Made the Explorer team this season as a walk-on . . . Was an All-Catholic choice at Cardinal O'Hara and also a first team All-Delaware County performer in high school . . . Is a dean's list student at La Salle and matriculating at the school on an academic scholarship . . . Did not play basketball last season to concentrate on academic work . . . A very fundamental player who is a product of the Philadelphia Catholic League . . . His playing time could be limited this year with the depth of the Explorer backcourt . . . A very fine shooter, he once shot 16 out of 16 from the foul line in high school.

COACH'S COMMENT:

"He never stops working. He made the team on his own merits."

RICH TARR

Freshman 19 6'2" 170 Guard

FULL NAME: Richie Andrew Tarr
DATE OF BIRTH: 11/4/64
HOMETOWN: Shamokin, PA
MAJOR: Communications
HIGH SCHOOL: Shamokin Area
HIGH SCHOOL COACH: Bob Probert

RICH TARR

A first-team All-State performer last year at Shamokin Area High School... An excellent outside shooter, he finished his high school career as the leading all-time scorer with 1965 points... Averaged 29.5 points per game as a senior to lead all high school players in the state... Also holds Shamokin Area High's single game scoring record with 45 points... After being selected to the All-State team, his hometown declared "Richie Tarr Day" and held a testimonial dinner in his honor... Joins an already deep Explorer backcourt but his shooting range and ballhandling skills will be great additions to the team... Is the fourth first-team All-State player to enroll at La Salle in the last two years... On signing Tarr, Coach Ervin noted, "I would not have recruited a guard this year if he were not a truly exceptional player."

COACH'S COMMENT:

"He has a deadly jumper and a great drive and seems to have an instinct of how to put points on the board."

23

PETE TIANO

Junior 21 6'3" 185 Guard

FULL NAME: Peter William Tiano
DATE OF BIRTH: 5/31/62
HOMETOWN: North Hills, PA
MAJOR: Computer Science
HIGH SCHOOL: Abington
HIGH SCHOOL COACH: Jim Wilkinson
CAREER HIGH POINTS:
16 vs. Temple 2/28/82

PETE TIANO

A valuable player on the squad because of his versatility to play either guard position . . . Started five games last season while seeing action in 26 games overall . . . Ranked third on the team in assists after being second in that category as a freshman . . . Had his best game as a freshman . . . A fine outside shooter who is a fine scorer at the point . . . Possesses all the skills of a fine point guard, with outstanding ballhandling and quick, accurate passes . . . Had his best game as a freshman when he scored consistently from outside to total 16 points . . . An outstanding student-athlete as a computer science major . . . Should see considerable action again this season in the backcourt.

COACH'S COMMENT:

"Pete's experience and smart play will play a vital role for us this year."

1983-84 PRE-SEASON OUTLOOK

The 1983-84 basketball season is one that all La Salle College fans will undoubtedly look forward to as the Explorers begin competition in the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference (MAAC) with four returning starters from last year's NCAA Tournament team and a pair of first-team All-State (PA) high school recruits.

The new conference, made up of Army, Fairfield, Fordham, Holy Cross, Iona, Manhattan and St. Peter's, is sure to be a strong test for La Salle. "I would expect a rough road our first trip through the conference," says Explorer head coach Dave "Lefty" Ervin. "There is a lot of talent there and teams are very well coached," Ervin adds.

To battle the talent he will encounter in the MAAC, Ervin has four starters and several seasoned veterans from the team that last season used a late season run to capture the East Coast Conference Championship. "I am left with a good feeling knowing four of five starters are returning," notes Ervin.

Of those returning players, junior guard Steve Black is probably the key. The 6'4" Black suffered through an injury filled year when a stress fracture sidelined him for 13 games. His importance to the Explorers is seen in the 6-7 record the team compiled in his absence. When he returned to the lineup, La Salle rolled to a 7-3 record enroute to the conference title. "With a fully recovered Steve Black, I think you are dealing with one of the major talents in America," says Ervin.

Forwards Ralph Lewis and Albert Butts, as well as guard Chip Greenberg will also return to their starting positions this season. Lewis and Butts were unquestionably the most consistent players in the Blue and Gold last season, as they were called upon for scoring in addition to their normal boardwork with Black on the sideline. Butts, a 6'9" power forward, led the ECC in rebounding with a 9.6 average while contributing 12.3 points per game. Lewis led the team in points with 418 (13.1 average) while rebounding at an 8.1 per game clip. Greenberg, the ECC's "Rookie of the Year", was another Explorer who suffered through injuries last season, but still led the team in steals (2.2) and assists (3.6) while averaging 11.3 points per game. The 6'4" sophomore suffered ligament damage in his ankle over the summer but appears to have recovered fully for the start of the '83-84 campaign.

Ervin also has the luxury of several key back-up players as well. Gary Jones started 17 games last season at point guard as a freshman and is probably the best defensive player on the team. Junior Dallas Philson became a capable scorer with Black sidelined, and was named to the All-Tournament team at the Marshall Memorial Tournament. Another junior, Pete Tiano, saw action in 26 games, five as a starter, and can play equally well at either guard slot.

Three recruits will also play a key role in the 1983-84 season. Forward Larry Koretz of G.A.R. High School in Wilkes-Barre, PA was a first-team All-State performer. He averaged 23.2 points and 11.7 rebounds per game and could be penciled in the Explorer starting line-up early this season. Koretz is an excellent outside shooter and a rugged rebounder.

Another "blue-chip" recruit entering the Explorer fold is 6'1" guard Rich Tarr of Shamokin Area High School. Tarr was the leading scorer in the state of Pennsylvania last year, averaging 29.5 points per game while compiling 1965 points during his four year high school career.

A third newcomer to the Explorers is 6'7" leaper Victor Moran. A "redshirt" last season because of knee problems, Moran will be a very important part of the Explorer attack if fully recovered. On a team which is shallow at the forward position, Moran, last year's ECC high jump champion and La Salle record holder, will be a needed force.

The 1983-84 season then is one that should be a productive one for La Salle. Coach Ervin is hoping that the returning players and top recruits will blend to put La Salle at the top of the MAAC in the team's initial year. "While there will be a time problem blending the talent, there is no question the talent is there, as is a certain degree of experience. I have every expectation that we will be a solid basketball team."

Steve Black, City Series Scoring Champion of '81-'82, in action vs. St. Joseph's.

BIG FIVE HISTORY

The Philadelphia Big 5, a unique affiliation in college basketball, enters its 28th season of competition with all indications pointing to another exciting year.

With La Salle, St. Joseph's, Villanova, Temple and Pennsylvania challenging the best teams from throughout the country, millions of fans have come to the Palestra to catch the action. This season should be no different, as national opponents such as Notre Dame, Georgetown, West Virginia, Syracuse, Louisville and DePaul will be on hand to meet Big 5 teams.

Interest in the Big 5 has grown to the point where a television contract with The New Jersey Network has been signed as has a radio contract with WCAU-AM, one of the strongest stations in the nation.

Groundwork for the formation of the Big 5 began in 1953 and the idea became a reality when the group was officially announced at a press conference on November 23, 1953. On December 3, 1955, La Salle hosted Muhlenburg and Rhode Island visited St. Joseph's in the inaugural games for the Big 5.

METRO ATLANTIC ATHLETIC CONFERENCE HISTORY

The Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference (MAAC), one of the newest and fastest growing athletic conferences in the country, enters its third season of competition with the 1983-84 year.

The MAAC, which consisted of six institutions for its first two years, has expanded to eight schools this year. Army (U.S. Military Academy), Fairfield University, Iona College, Manhattan College and St. Peter's College opened conference membership this year to include Holy Cross College and La Salle College.

The basketball tradition of the MAAC schools is a rich one indeed. MAAC institutions have made a combined 21 NCAA and 63 NIT tournament appearances over the years, with Holy Cross and La Salle being two of only ten schools which have won both the NCAA and NIT Championships.
